Gambling House Robbed.

Tonopah, Nev., Dec. 12.—In the presence of a large crowd a gambling house was robbed of $1,000 Saturday night by an unknown man who crawled 300 feet under the building and with a large auger bored a hole in the floor, reached his hand through and took the money from under the lookout chair.

Several Persons Killed.

London, Dec. 12.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg to a news agency reports that in a recruiting riot at Bo-tsum on Saturday, several persons were killed or wounded.

Young Man Commits Suicide.

St. Paul, Dec. 12.—After writing his epitaph, Walter W. Cowgill, twenty-five years old, formerly employed in a restaurant conducted by his father, Cyrus W. Cowgill, ended his life by drinking an ounce of laudanum in his room at the Reardon lodging house.
Despondency over ill health is supposed to have prompted the act.

OHIO BANKER TELLS OF HIS FI-NANCIAL DEALINGS WITH
MRS. C. L. CHADWICK.

STEEL MAGNATE'S DAUGHTER

THE ILLEGITIMATE CHILD OF
ANDREW CARNEGIE.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 12.—Secretary Iri Reynolds of the Wade Park bank, declared Sunday night that his implicit belief in the statements made to him by Mrs. Chadwick, in which she declared herself to be the daughter of Andrew Carnegie, was the impelling cause of his financial dealing with her.
"She told me," said Mr. Reynolds,
"that she was the illegitimate daughter of Andrew Carnegie and I believed her. I never doubted her story until on the occasion of my last visit to New York, Mr. Squire came to me and declared that all the securities she had given me, also the notes of Andrew Carnegie were worthless. It was only then that I doubted her. Before that I had refused to say anything against her or her affairs, because I deemed it my duty to protect her in the story of her birth, as she had given it to me. I never once doubted her until it was shown that the securities she gave me were worthless. After that, of course, I could not believe her any more. When she told me the story of being the daughter of Andrew Carnegie, her husband, Dr. Chadwick, was present and he believed the story as I did. The stories of her giving large sums of money to her husband are false. He is now in Europe and is penniless."

Mr. Reynolds said that about a year ago Mrs. Chadwick, in gratitude for his services to her, offered him a present of $100,000 in four notes of $25,000 each, which he declined, as he felt that he must resign his position in the bank if he accepted the present.
All the directors of the Wade Park bank have decided to stand by Mr.
Reynolds, and have refused to accept his resignation as secretary.

MRS. CHADWICK'S ATTORNEYS SAID TO PREFER THAT SHE

New York, Dec. 12.—From present indications it is extremely unlikely that any attempt will be made to obtain bail for Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, who has been in the Tombs since last Thursday night on the charge of aiding and abetting bank officials in the embezzlement of $15,000. She was held under $15,000 bail. A person who is in a position to know the various movements in the Chadwick case in an interview said Sunday:

"Despite all reports to the contrary no active efforts have been made to obtain bail for Mrs. Chadwick in this city. There are plenty of people here who would sign her bond if asked, but the fact is it is not deemed advisable for Mrs. Chadwick to leave the city prison at present. If she were released on bail, the government could demand twenty-four hours bail in which to examine her security. Meanwhile the government attorneys could telegraph the Cleveland authorities and before the twenty-four hours had expired could have additional charges sent here, so it would be possible to demand new bail."

"This procedure could be carried out so long as the government authorities thought they had charges. Then there would come a conflict of authority. A county grand jury might find an indictment against Mrs. Chadwick, then the question of extradition would come up in a different light from any yet suggested.

Will Remain in Prison.

"I am of the opinion that Mrs. Chadwick will remain quietly in the Tombs for the present. Her examination is set for next Saturday before Commissioner Shields. If other charges are presented from any side the commissioner would listen to the evidence with a view to determine whether or not Mrs. Chadwick should be held for the federal grand jury."

"It is not believed that a decision will be reached that day. Indeed it is very possible that it will be some time before the matter is definitely decided.
In case Mrs. Chadwick is held for the federal grand jury, it is not at all unlikely that one of the greatest legal battles fought in New York will follow."

For several days it has been remarked that Dr. Leroy S. Chadwick, was either in Paris, Berlin or Brussels, but an investigation by press representatives in those places failed to develop his presence, although many letters are awaiting the physician at the Hotel Metropole, Brussels, where he is a regular patron.

Philip Carpenter, Mrs. Chadwick's counsel, was asked Sunday concerning the whereabouts of the husband of his client, but he declined to say. Mr.
Carpenter also asked to be excused from discussing his future action relating to Mrs. Chadwick's troubles.

"It would not be good policy," he said, "to anticipate in any way our line of action."

Mr. Chadwick Need Not Return.

A lawyer, who has been connected with the recent financial difficulties of Mrs. Chadwick said Sunday in reference to the report that steps might eventually be taken to compel the return of Dr. Chadwick to this country:

"Any person who says that Dr.
Chadwick can be brought back to the United States against his will because he gave Herbert D. Newton checks which were returned marked 'Without funds,' knows nothing of the law. Had the doctor bought a coat and given a worthless check he could have been held for obtaining money under false pretenses, but in this case there was
given two checks aggregating $50,000
as a part payment of his wife's indebtedness. The checks were valueless, but no crime was committed, for Dr.
Chadwick received nothing. Mr. Newton received nothing. In other words
fore no crime committed."

This lawyer further said that if
Mrs. Chadwick settled $2,500,000 on her husband three years ago, the money was probably obtained on good security and could not be touched.

Mrs. Chadwick passed a quiet day in the Tombs. No visitors are allowed to see federal prisoners on Sunday and no exception was made in Mrs. Chad-wick's case, although she received two notes from her nurse, to which she replied. She attended divine service in the corridors.

The prison physician found Mrs.
Chadwick in excellent health Sunday and said probably he would not need

CREDITORS WILL GET LITTLE.

Mrs. Chadwick Said to Be Unable to

Cleveland, O., Dec. 12.—According to the most accurate estimate of the estate of Mrs. Chadwick that is possible before the receiver has investigated her assets, and reported his findings to the court, her creditors as a whole will receive about one and one-half mills on the dollar. What lends additional interest to this showing, from the creditors' standpoint, is that one man, Iri Reynolds, will receive the whole of the assets visible at the present time. There may be funds in reserve somewhere, as there may be additional creditors who have not yet announced that Mrs. Chadwick is indebted to them, but it is not expected by bankers and attorneys of this city who have the greatest knowledge of her affairs that any more large loans will be developed.

The extent of her operations is now believed to be approximately as follows:

Secured from Citizens' National bank of Oberlin and various sources in and about Lorain county, O., $500,- 000.
$150,000.
Borrowed from business man in Pittsburg, $500,000.
Total, $1,150,000.

Against this stands security of known value on one note amounting to $1,800, which is held by Iri Reynolds.

The amount of money received by Mrs. Chadwick in Pittsburg may run as high as $800,000, but it is believed that a portion of this sum is a bonus promised by her for an original loan of at least $500,000. Her creditor there figures that she is indebted to him for the larger amount, while she has admitted that she owes $500,000.

Securities of No Account.

000 the probability in sight of the creditors is about one and one-fifth mills on the dollar. It is not believed by any of the attorneys in the case that the Carnegie securities will be of any account whatever. If they do at any time reveal value other than that of so many cents per pound of white paper, the delight of the lawyers will be comparable only to their amazement, and just now they are anticipating neither pleasure nor astonishment.

The case of Mrs. Chadwick will be brought before the grand jury of Cuyahoga county Monday. The investigation will extend only to the alleged forgery of the Carnegie notes, and a

FIGHTING IS RESUMED

RUSSIANS AND JAPS ONCE MORE ENGAGE IN DEADLY COMBAT SOUTH OF MUKDEN.

CZAR'S FORCES RETREATING

DRIVEN BACK TO THE HUN RIVER WITH HEAVY LOSSES AFTER SEVERE STRUGGLE.

London, Dec. 12.—The Daily Telegraph's Tientsin correspondent has heard that continual fighting is proceeding south of Mukden.

The correspondent at Shanghai of the Daily Telegraph, in a dispatch dated Dec. 11, says that according to Peking reports the Russians have retreated to the south bank of the Hun river after seventy-two hours of fighting, with heavy losses. On the fourth day of the fighting, the correspondent says, the Japanese assumed the offensive. The Mukden station is reported to be in a wild state of confusion.

The Daily Telegraph thinks the authenticity of the foregoing reports from Chinese sources of heavy fighting is very doubtful.

REPULSED WITH HEAVY LOSS.

Japs Make Futile Attack on Russians Below Mukden.

Mukden, Dec. 12.—The Japanese opened a heavy fire on the Russian line east of the railway at 4 o'clock Sunday morning, but the Russians had searchlights in readiness and for the first time used them. The army lights proved very effective, and a deadly rifle and artillery fire being concentrated on the Japanese advance, they were driven back with heavy loss.

SHELLING THE HULKS

JAPS CONTINUE TO BATTER THE REMNANT OF THE RUSSIAN
PORT ARTHUR FLEET.

Tokio, Dec. 12.—The Japanese continue to batter the Port Arthur fleet and there is little ground for expecting that it will ever again engage the Japanese. The battleship Sevastopol continues at anchor outside, but possibly returns to the harbor at night and anchors inside the outer boom, which protects her from torpedo boats.

The recent heavy weather has given
experts are discarding the theory that the Russians themselves sank any of their ships. The fact that the vessels first showed lists while in exposed positions and the efforts made to save the Sevastopol are regarded as conclusive evidence against the theory of their being sunk by the Russians. A majority of the sunken warships lie headed northward. They received the bulk of the fire across their port sides
and the fact that at least two of them showed lists to starboard, gives rise to the theory that Japanese shells exploded inside the ships and against the starboard armor, driving the armor outward and causing leaks.

To make sure the destruction of the Russian warships the Japanese continue to drop shells into the sunken hulks. The whereabouts of the torpedo boat destroyers continues doubtful, but it is thought they are sheltering outside the harbor. The weather prevents a good observation being made but the Japanese are sending a searching fire into nooks which are not observable from 203-Meter hill and other heights. The observers report a number of tugs, launches, dredgers and small craft anchored north of the hospital ships in the west harbor, where they have evidently gone for the purpose of protection. It is suggested that the besiegers notify General Stoessel to separate these vessels from the hospital ships or take the consequences. The Japanese are exercising care to avoid hitting the hospital ships, which frequently are in the direct line of fire.

Sevastopol.

London, Dec. 12.—An unofficial report from Port Arthur, according to a Tokio dispatch in the Daily Mail, says that Japanese torpedo boat destroyers attacked the Russian battleship Sevastopol at the mouth of the harbor the night of Dec. 9, with results unknown.

The Daily Telegraph's correspondent before Port Arthur reports under date of Dec. 9 that there were desperate encounters last week. The belligerents, the correspondent adds, mutually recognize the Red Cross and collect the dead and wounded during

The Daily Telegraph's Tientsin correspondent learns from official Japanese sources that the Japanese casualties at Port Arthur the latter part of October were 3,000 killed and 10,000 wounded. The losses in more recent attacks, the correspondent adds, were much heavier.

ROOSEVELT'S ENORMOUS VOTE.

Exceeds That of McKinley in 1900 by Over 400,000.

New York, Dec. 12.—The New York Times says a canvass by the New
last presidential election, complete
four counties in Michigan, for which estimates are given, show that President Roosevelt defeated Judge Parker by 2,546,169. He polled the largest vote ever given for a president of the United States, 7,840,560. This is more than 400,000 in excess of the vote cast for McKinley in 1900. The electoral vote will be 336 for Roosevelt and 140 for Parker.

HOLDS POLICEMEN AT BAY.

Insane Man Cuts Three Michigan Offi-

only in underclothing and insane from an attack of typhoid fever, James De-latto, an Italian, thirty-two years of age, with an axe held seven policemen at bay for two hours in the Fifth Reformed Dutch church shortly before the morning service.

top of the big pipe organ and policemen were compelled to climb into it from overhead to capture him.

In the capture three policemen were cut with the axe and Delatto was shot through the head, but may recover.
The organ was damaged to the extent

report from the jury is expected no later than Tuesday.

It is the opinion of some of the leading attorneys of Cleveland that a charge of forgery cannot be made to hold in connection with these notes.
They declare that it is not an act of forgery for one person to write the name of another, but that the offense lies in the attempt to negotiate such a signature for a specific value. This, they say, there is so far no evidence that Mrs. Chadwick has done. She has not sold or attempted to sell the notes for cash, but simply obtained money on the attestation of Iri Reynolds that she had unnumbered securities of immense value. In other words, Mrs. Chadwick obtained money on Reynold's opinion of her securities, not upon the securities themselves.
This apparently is the opinion of the Lorain county grand jury, which failed to return an indictment against her.

BELIEVED PAPER TO BE GOOD.

Dr. Chadwick Says His Wife Was Not Dishonest.

New York, Dec. 12.—The World says that Dr. Leroy S. Chadwick, husband of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, was interviewed by its correspondent in a Paris hotel Sunday. In the interview Dr. Chadwick denied that he left America because his wife's affairs were to be ventilated, and he said that if Mrs. Chadwick negotiated paper bearing Andrew Carnegie's signature she believed it to be good. He said Mrs. Chadwick was in no need of money.

Owatonna, Minn., Dec. 12.—M. B.
Chadwick, former judge of probate of Steele county, is reputed to be a brother of Dr. L. S. Chadwick of Cleveland, O. An effort to obtain a statement from him with reference to the present whereabouts of the doctor was unsuccessful, Mr. Chadwick stating that he did not care to say anything for publication at this time.

Minnesota Man Then Ends His Own

Moorhead, Minn., Dec. 12.—Frank L. Gibbs shot and fatally wounded his wife, then shot himself in the head, dying instantly, at their home at Barnesville, Sunday night. The couple had been quarreling more or less of late, and it is supposed that Mrs.
Gibbs was taunting her husband because he had spent all their money, and the attempted murder and suicide was the result.

Gibbs was found with the revolver lying close to his right hand, and was dead; his wife lay on the floor with one wound in her head and another in her abdomen, and at last accounts was still living. She was unconscious when found, but regained consciousness long enough to tell the doctors her husband had done the shooting.
Mrs. Gibbs is a daughter of the late Captain Taintor of Menomonie, Wis.
When they came to Barnesville Mrs.
Gibbs had a small fortune of $11,000, which her husband squandered. They have been in very poor circumstances for several months, and their financial condition undoubtedly led to the tragedy.

Sevastopol.

known.

ent before Port Arthur reports under date of Dec. 9 that there were desperate encounters last week. The bel-
nese sources that the Japanese casualties at Port Arthur the latter part of October were 3,000 killed and 10,000
much heavier.

for Parker.

through the head, but may recover.

MRS. C. L. CHADWICK.

ANDREW CARNEGIE.

cause of his financial dealing with her.
wick, was present and he believed the

Mr. Reynolds said that about a year
his services to her, offered him a present of $100,000 in four notes of
bank have decided to stand by Mr.

tain bail for Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick,
who has been in the Tombs since last
an interview said Sunday:

ty. A county grand jury might find
yet suggested.

the federal grand jury.

are awaiting the physician at the Hotel Metropole, Brussels, where he is a regular patron.

Phillip Carpenter, Mrs. Chadwick's
lating to Mrs. Chadwick's troubles.
said, "to participate in any way our

Mr. Chadwick Need Not Return.

country:

"Any person who says that Dr.
as a part payment of his wife's indebtedness. The checks were valueless,

security and could not be touched.

the corridors.

The prison physician found Mrs.

CREDITORS WILL GET LITTLE.

Mrs. Chadwick Said to Be Unable to

lows:

bank of Oberlin and various sources
000.

$190,000.

nolds.

tonishment.

forgeries of the Carnegie notes, and a

tinued to batter the Port Arthur fleet

Weather

Forecast—Fair and warmer.

Temperature (Record kept by Dr. J.
L. Camp from 7 a. m. yesterday morning to 7 a. m. this morning)—Maximum 32 above zero; minimum 26 above zero.

WADENA will not lose its cracker factory, but it will be rebuilt on the site of the burned building and a large addition will be made to its output.

On account of not having filed his expense account according to the corrupt practice law Mayor-elect Jones of Minneapolis may have mandamus proceedings filed against him and lose his office.

JUDGING from the trend of public sentiment expressed in the country press the reduction of freight rates will be one thing the attention of the legislature will be called to shortly after the session opens.

The new fish hatchery completed by the state at Glenwood will be formally dedicated on Tuesday at which time a million fish eggs will be transferred from the St. Paul hatchery. The new hatchery is modern in every particular and the Glenwood people will celebrate the coming event with appropriate ceremonies.

A LARGE shortage has been found in the accounts of the deputy county treasurer of Stearns county, by the deputy public examiner, the amount being about $4,000. C. A. Bernick, the defaulting official, is said to be fully able to make good the shortage but he will undoubtedly have to face the criminal side of the case as the offense is a serious one and the county officials have no alternative but to push the prosecution. The Journal Press says Bernick invested the county money in farm lands.

AFTER all the fuss made about the suit brought against C. B. Buckman during the late campaign for political purposes, the case has fallen flat, the judge deciding that the state could sue for only the damages. The history of the matter was as stated at the time the case was brought, one of Buckman's foremen cut some timber by mistake on a section where Buckman owned part of the timber. As soon as Buckman was informed of the error he reported the trespass, made settlement with the state timber board, and paid more than the timber was worth and the state has no claim at all.

THE St. Cloud Journal Press sums up the opposition to Senator Clapp fully when it says it embraces three phases, gentlemen who have an honorable ambition to be elected senator; the desire of certain grafters to create enough of a contest to get a bundle of pot to disburse, and the hatred of certain politicians who cannot use Senator Clapp to their own purposes. If the republican members of the legislature have the interest of the state and the party at heart they will follow out the dictation of the state convention regardless of the handful of politicians who are endeavoring to create discord by ignoring the wish of the people of the entire state. The Minneapolis newspapers are creating the impression that there is a demand for some other candidate when in fact that state affairs does not exist and without newspapers of this character there would be no possible show of hostility and the grafters would have no means of getting into the game. If those men who were elected to the legislature with the assurance that they were friendly to the return of Senator Clapp will announce their determination to stand by their pledge it will do away with any fight and the matter will be settled.

Carnival Tonight.

The grand spectacular carnival under the auspices of the First Congregational church and by direction of Carroll E.
Johnson will be given at the Brainerd opera house this evening. There are 125 ladies in the cast for this carnival and the costumes are both beautiful and unique. It will be an entertainment of rare merit, the picturesqueness of the costume being a grand feature.
There will be some good specialty acts.

The attraction at the Brainerd opera house on Thursday, Dec. 15, with Phil Ryley at the head, which ran 250 nights in Chicago and 100 nights in New York, will be the big musical comedy, "The Tenderfoot."

"The Tenderfoot" has been happily referred to on many occasions as "Arizona set to music," a phrase that implies the atmosphere of Augustus Thomas' great play, which is there in abundance. There are jaunty Mexicans, rollicking cowboys, dusky Indians, and the quaint Chinaman, the blue-shirted alkali-dusty rangers of Texas, señoritas from over the border, pretty girls from Texas and Arizona, also a guileless Prof.
Zachary Pettibone, LL. D. B. A., who is accompanying a party of domestic girls on a tour of the west. The scenes are laid in Texas and the story infers the time when the southwest was most picturesque and "sassy"; in fact it has been many times said that it is the alkali dust that makes "The Tenderfoot" a great novelty. The cast, with a few exceptions, is the original one and comprises, in addition to Phil Ryley: Geos. Romain, Thos. Cameron, Ed. Crawford, Mary Carrington, May Malestesta, Daisy Lughlough, Lucille Adams and the famous "Dolly Girls," said to be as pretty as brand new dolls.

The seat sale opens Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store.

WAS A VERY

Henry Congdon, of Oak Lawn, Shot at by His Brother While They Were Hunting

THOUGHT HE WAS A RABBIT

Young Man Was Wounded in the Leg and Foot but Injuries

Are not Serious.

Yesterday Henry Congdon, sons of B. F. Congdon, of Oak Lawn, were out hunting and an accident occurred which nearly cost Henry Congdon his life. They were hunting rabbits and had separated. Henry went into a thicket and while in a crouching position Merton saw him and thought he was a rabbit. He raised his gun and took deliberate aim at the object he saw in the thicket and to his horror he discovered that it was his brother he had shot at.

Fortunately the aim was low and some of the shot lodged only in his leg and heel. Had the aim been a little higher it is thought that the young man would have been killed instantly.

Dangerous Vertigo.

Dizziness or Swarming of the Head Associated With a Sense of Fullness, Dull Pain or Nervous Sick Headache is a Certain Indication of

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

If the person subject to attack of dizziness or swarming of the head, commonly called vertigo, would only stop to realize that these symptoms are not a disease in themselves, but temporary ailments, but the plainest sort of warnings from nature of grave troubles of deeper origin, of an exhausted nervous system or of an oncoming apoplexy, epilepsy or paralysis, the matter would receive prompt attention. Dr. A. W.
Chase knew this and provided the cure in his celebrated Nerve Pill, a medicine that brings back the glow of health and strength by its power to furnish just what the body needs, good, rich wholesome blood and nerve force or energy.

Mr. E. Smith, of No. 1 Union Street, Troy, N. Y., says:
"I used to suffer constantly from nervous headache and dizzy spells.
They came on at any time and in any place—I was never safe from them—stooping over always resulted in vertigo —my head pained me as well. I got a box of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and they cured the trouble rapidly, easily and completely. It is the best medicine I ever took. I am as sound as a dollar again in every particular and very glad to recommend it to any one in a similar condition as a safe and certain cure." 50c a box at dealers or Dr.

Inmates of the Fergus Falls state hospital for the insane will have fresh fish this week. S. F. Fullerton, state game warden, has notified Judge O. B. Gould, of the state board of control, that in his possession were 800 pounds of fish taken by deputy game warden from men who caught them with gill nets and other illegal appliances in lakes near Brainerd says the Globe. The law requires that the contraband go to the state's charitable institutions. Fergus Falls is the nearest town to Brainerd having a state institution, and the inmates of its insane asylum will receive the fish. The fish include whitefish, pike, pickerel and other varieties native to Minnesota waters.

The new hatchery is modern in every particular and the Glenwood people will celebrate the coming event with appropriate ceremonies.

A LARGE shortage has been found in the accounts of the deputy county treasurer of Stearns county, by the deputy public examiner, the amount being about $4,000. C. A. Bernick, the defaulting official, is said to be fully able to make good the shortage but he will undoubtedly have to face the criminal side of the case as the offense is a serious one and the county officials have no alternative but to push the prosecution. The Journal Press says Bernick invested the county money in farm lands.

AFTER all the fuss made about the suit brought against C. B. Buckman during the late campaign for political purposes, the case has fallen flat, the judge deciding that the state could sue for only the damages. The history of the matter was as stated at the time the case was brought, one of Buckman's foremen cut some timber by mistake on a section where Buckman owned part of the timber. As soon as Buckman was informed of the error he reported the trespass, made settlement with the state timber board, and paid more than the timber was worth and the state has no claim at all.

THE St. Cloud Journal Press sums up the opposition to Senator Clapp fully when it says it embraces three phases, gentlemen who have an honorable ambition to be elected senator; the desire of certain grafters to create enough of a contest to get a boodle pot to disburse, and the hatred of certain politicians who cannot use Senator Clapp to their own purposes. If the republican members of the legislature have the interest of the state and the party at heart they will follow out the dictation of the state convention regardless of the handful of politicians who are endeavoring to create discord by ignoring the wish of the people of the entire state. The Minneapolis newspapers are creating the impression that there is a demand for some other candidate when in fact that state of affairs does not exist and without newspapers of this character there would be no possible show of hostility and the grafters would have no means of getting into the game. If those men who were elected to the legislature with the assurance that they were friendly to the return of Senator Clapp will announce their determination to stand by their pledge it will do away with any fight and the matter will be settled.

It will be an entertainment of rare merit, the picturesqueness of the costumes being a grand feature. There will be some good specialty acts.

The attraction at the Brainerd opera house on Thursday, Dec. 15, with Phil Ryley at the head, which ran 250 nights in Chicago and 100 nights in New York, will be the big musical comedy, "The Tenderfoot."

"The Tenderfoot" has been happily referred to on many occasions as "Arizona set to music," a phrase that implies the atmosphere of Augustus Thomas' great play, which is there in abundance. There are jaunty Mexicans, rollicking cowboys, dusky Indians, and the quaint Chinaman, the blue-shirted alkali-dusty rangers of Texas, señoritas from over the border, pretty girls from Texas and Arizona, also a guileless Prof. Zachary Pettibone, LL. D. B. A., who is accompanying a party of seminary girls on a tour of the west. The scenes are laid in Texas and the story infers the time when the southwest was most picturesque and "sassy"; in fact it has been many times said that it is the alkali dust that makes "The Tenderfoot" a great novelty. The cast, with a few exceptions, is the original one and comprises, in addition to Phil Ryley: Geo. Romain, Thos. Cameron, Ed. Crawford, Mary Carrington, May Malestesta, Daisy Lughlow, Lucille Adams and the famous "Dolly Girls," said to be as pretty as brand new dolls.

The seat sale opens Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store.

Henry Congdon, of Oak Lawn, Shot at by His Brother While They Were Hunting

Young Man Was Wounded in the Leg and Foot but Injuries Are not Serious.

Yesterday Henry and Merton Congdon, sons of B. F. Congdon, of Oak Lawn, were out hunting and an accident occurred which nearly cost Henry Congdon his life. They were hunting rabbits and had separated. Henry went into a thicket and while in a crouching position Merton saw him and thought he was a rabbit. He raised his gun and took deliberate aim at the object he saw in the thicket and to his horror he discovered that it was his brother he had shot at.

Fortunately the aim was low and some of the shot lodged only in his leg and heel. Had the aim been a little higher it is thought that the young man would have been killed instantly.

Dangerous Vertigo.

Dizziness or Swimming of the Head Associated With a Sense of Fullness, Dull Pain or Nervous Sick Headache is a Certain Indication of an Outcome Apoplexy or Paralysis

If the person subject to attack of dizziness or swimming of the head, commonly called vertigo, would only stop to realize that these symptoms are not a disease in themselves, but temporary ailments, but the plainest sort of warnings from nature of grave troubles of deeper origin, of an exhausted nervous system or of an oncoming apoplexy, epilepsy or paralysis, the matter would receive prompt attention. Dr. A. W. Chase knew this and provided the cure in his celebrated Nerve Pills, a medicine that brings back the glow of health and strength by its power to furnish just what the ill-fated, half starved nervous system needs, good, rich wholesome blood and nerve force or energy.

Mr. E. Smith, of No. 1 Union Street, Troy, N. Y., says: "I used to suffer constantly from nervous headache and dizzy spells. They came on at any time and in any place—I was never safe from them. Stopping over always resulted in vertigo—my head pained me as well. I got a box of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and they cured the trouble rapidly, easily and completely. It is the best medicine I ever took. I am as sound as a dollar again in every particular and very glad to recommend it to any one in a similar condition as a safe and certain cure." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. ANOTHER RUMOR OF A CHANGE OF TIME

On the Northern Pacific, Giving Brainerd a Night Train from the Twin Cities

7 and 8 TO RUN THROUGH HERE

Nos. 5 and 6 Said to Be Scheduled to Run Over the Cut-off Instead of this Way.

There is a rumor in railroad circles of a change in the passenger train schedules on the Minnesota and Superior divisions.

It has been rumored for some time that Brainerd would get a night train, but the arrangement now being discussed is entirely different than the one originally planned. It is now said that Nos. 5 and 6, which meet here about noon each day will run by the way of the cut-off after the first of the year and not make Brainerd at all. The day service from the twin cities to Brainerd and vice versa will not be materially changed, for under the new arrangement it is said that the Morris branch passenger, which only comes as far as Little Falls, will run through to Brainerd and back to Little Falls in time to connect with the passenger there going to Minneapolis. Passengers coming this way from the cities could leave there in the morning and connect with the branch train at Little Falls. The only inconvenience about this day service would be the change of trains at Little Falls.

Brainerd people would gladly overlook this if the proposed schedule is carried through for they would then get a night train.

It is claimed that Nos. 7 and 8, which now go by the way of the cut-off, will run through Brainerd. No. 7 from the east arrives at Staples about 1 o'clock a. m. and it is presumed that this would be about the hour that it would arrive here. No. 8 from the west arrives there about 3 a. m.

The connection between this city and the west would be made by running the Duluth train through to Staples every day. This train now turns here. The Morris branch train would then turn here.

John Conrad's Home Burned While he was Away to Meet His Wife at Depot

Furniture and House Were Totally Destroyed—Both Were Partially Insured

John Conrad met grim misfortune this morning and as a result is loser something like $600 from fire.

Shortly before 4 o'clock this morning he came down to the N. P. depot to meet his wife who was returning home from Fargo where she had been visiting for some time. He built the fire in the stove before leaving the house and locked the door. When at the depot the department was called and it was discovered that the fire was at the home of Mr. Conrad. He and his wife hurried home, but it was too late to save anything and the house and its contents were consumed.

The most unfortunate thing about the fire was the fact that Mr. Conrad left $350 in bills in the house and this amount went up in smoke. Also his watch. He carried $850 insurance on the furniture but this will not cover the loss as there was a new piano worth about $300. The house is owned by John Lambert, of Emily and there was $500 insurance on it. The loss was about $700. The fire is supposed to have started from an over heated stove.

The department was called out earlier in the evening, about 9 o'clock, to the A. Purdy livery stable. It was nothing but a chimney fire and no damage was done.

LITTLE GIRL LOST HER ALL

Florence Hall Lost Her Pocket Book Containing Ticket and Money at the N. P. Depot Last Night.

A young girl by the name of Florence Hall, about thirteen years of age, lost her pocket book at the N. P. depot last night just as she was about to board the train which leaves for Staples at midnight and after the train started found herself in a rather bad dilemma—no money and no ticket. She was taken to Staples and sent back to Brainerd on the early morning train and called on Agent G. W. Mosier. Mr. Mosier at once took steps to help the young girl and in a few minutes collected enough money to pay her fare from here to Wazeta. Later it was discovered that Night Captain Henry Hurley found a pocket book and when it was reported this morning Mr. Mosier was sent for and with the little girl went up to the police court and identified the property as her own. The money was turned over to her and she went on her way rejoicing.

ANTI-GOVERNMENT DEMONSTRATION IN ST. PETERSBURG IS SUPPRESSED.

CHARGE ON THE CROWD AND INFLECT WOUNDS ON OVER A HUNDRED PEOPLE.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 12.—A popular anti-government demonstration, the participants in which included large numbers of students of both sexes, began at midday in the Nevsky Prospect and lasted about two hours. Hundreds of police and mounted gendarmes, who were hidden in the courtyard of the public buildings, emerged suddenly and charged the crowd at full gallop, driving the demonstrators in headlong confusion and screaming with terror upon the sidewalks and into adjacent streets. This led to serious encounters, fifty persons being more or less severely injured. Large numbers were arrested.

Not since the riots of 1891, when Cossacks reaching across the Nevsky Prospect from building to building, charged down the boulevard from the Moscow station to the Neva, has the Russian capital lived through such a day of excitement as Sunday. The authorities Saturday night got wind of the big anti-government demonstration planned for Sunday by the Social Democratic labor party to demand an immediate end of the war and the convocation of a national assembly and leading the articles in every paper Sunday morning was an explicit notice warning the people at their peril to desist from congregating in the Nevsky Prospect Sunday morning near the Kazan cathedral. At the same time extensive preparations were made to quell any disturbance.

Only Served to Attract Crowds.

The newspaper warnings, however, by giving notice to those not apprised of the prospect of a demonstration defeated the very object for which they were designed, attracting vast crowds to this vicinity, and despite the pleas of the police, who literally lined the sidewalks, the street was almost impassable. The crowds on the sidewalk were composed of practically the whole student body of the capital, including many young women and thousands of workmen. Shortly before noon the workmen seemed to swarm to the corner of the boulevard opposite the Kazan cathedral. The police, realizing the critical moment had arrived, tried in vain to keep back the human tide. Then, when there was not a single mounted policeman in sight, on the stroke of one, from the heart of the thickly wedged crowd a red flag, like a jet of flame, suddenly shot up. It was the signal. Other flags appeared in the crowd, waving frantically overhead, and they were greeted with a hoarse roar, "Down with autocracy."

The students surged into the street, singing the Marseillaise, while innocent spectators, seeking to extricate themselves crowded into doorways and hugged walls.

Dismounted police made a single attempt to force their way into the crowd to wrest the flags from the demonstrators, but the students and workmen, armed with sticks, stood close and beat back their assaults.

Then, like a flash, from behind the Kazan cathedral came a squadron of gendarmes. The doors of adjoining court yards were thrown back and battalions of police came out. A double squadron charged the flank of the demonstrators with drawn sabers. Five other squadrons circled the mob, cutting through the fringe of spectators, who gladly scurried to cover. The main wedge of the demonstrators stood fast only a moment or two. There was a sharp rattle of cudgels and sabers, and though the wounds showed the police struck principally with the flat of their sabers. The women were especially fierce in their resistance. Many were struck and trampled, and blood streamed down their faces.

The police urged their horses fiercely into the crowd, dispersing those who resisted. The intense excitement lasted about ten minutes, after which mounted squads of the gendarmes patrolled the streets and the policemen devoted themselves to keeping the crowd moving.

There were probably 100 broken heads and several were severely wounded, though none fatally, so far as known. So far there have been over 100 arrests.

The ferment continued all day and far into the night, but only one or two other abortive attempts were made at demonstrations.

House Will Begin Second Week With Their Consideration.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The house will begin the second week of the session with consideration of private pension bills, Monday having been made pension day.

On Tuesday the resolution reported by the judiciary committee to impeach Charles Swayne, judge of the Northern district of Florida, comes before the house as a special order. It is probable that the appropriations committee may report a short urgent deficiency bill during the week, and it is stated that it is barely possible that the District of Columbia appropriation bill may be reported by the end of the week. A subcommittee is hard at work framing the bill.

Canonized by Pope Pius.

Rome, Dec. 12.—In the presence of 60,000 people assembled in St. Peter's, Pope Pius X. canonized Blessed Alessandro Sauli and Blessed Gerardo Malella, descendants of whom, including Marquises Ambrosio, Sauli and Negrotto, assisted in the canonizations.

THE RECOUNT RESULTS IN TIE

The committee appointed to recount the vote for alderman in the Third ward met this afternoon and the following report is the result of their deliberations:

Brainerd, Minn., Dec. 12, 1904.
We, the undersigned committee, appointed by the court to make count of the ballots cast at the general election on November 8th, 1904, for Andrew Miller and Timothy Toohey, respectively, for aldermen of the Third ward in the city of Brainerd, respectfully report to the court that we met at the office of the city clerk of the city of Brainerd, on this 12th day of December, 1904, at 2 o'clock, p. m., present F. E. Low, city clerk, Andrew Miller and Timothy Toohey, contestants, and their respective counsel, A. T. Larson and A. D. Polk.

After opening the box containing the ballots we carefully counted the ballots cast for the said candidates and hereby certify that at said election said Andrew Miller received one hundred ninety one votes for said office of alderman, and said Timothy Toohey received one hundred ninety one votes for said office of alderman.

FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD

The Information Contained in this Citizen's Statement is Invaluable to Brainerd People.

When a resident of Brainerd, whose statement appears below, who has no monetary or other interest in the article which he endorses, who is anxious to do his acquaintances and fellow residents a good turn, who publishes in this paper his experience with Doan's Kidney Pills—that citizen must have good and sufficient reason for doing so. The following should dispel any doubts which may have existed in the reader's mind on this subject:

J. Hagadorn, of 123 Ninth St. north, says: "For thirty years I had more or less trouble with my kidneys. Some attacks laid me up, while during others my back ached so severely that I could not sleep at night nor work during the day. On many occasions I could not stand and talk to a man for two or three minutes without suffering with twinges across the small of my back which radiated toward the shoulders. As time passed by the complaint became more pronounced and difficulty with the kidney secretions set in. As might be expected I tried everything when the attacks occurred to check them, but if I had met with any marked degree of success I never would have resorted to Doan's Kidney Pills. When suffering severely I went to a drug store and got a box. I expected the results would be similar to those obtained by using other preparations. In twenty four hours I changed my mind. I noticed they were acting totally different to anything hitherto tried and encouraged I kept on with the treatment until I finished two boxes. Now I may have recurrences, but at the present moment, and it is some time since I stopped the treatment, I have not a symptom of my old complaint. To anyone interested I will be only too pleased to give minutest details and substantiate the above statement in a personal interview."

ANOTHER RUMOR OF A CHANGE OF TIME

On the Northern Pacific, Giving Brainerd a Night Train from the Twin Cities

7 and 8 TO RUN THROUGH HERE

Nos. 5 and 6 Said to Be Scheduled to Run Over the Cut-off Instead of this Way.

There is a rumor in railroad circles of a change in the passenger train schedules on the Minnesota and Superior divisions.

It has been rumored for some time that Brainerd would get a night train, but the arrangement now being discus-ed is entirely different than the one originally planned. It is now said that Nos. 5 and 6, which meet here about noon each day will run by the way of the cut-off after the first of the year and not make Brainerd at all. The day service from the twin cities to Brainerd and vice versa will not be materially changed, for under the new arrangement it is said that the Morris branch passenger, which only comes as far as Little Falls, will run through to Brainerd and back to Little Falls in time to connect with the passenger train going to Minneapolis. Passengers coming this way from the cities could leave there in the morning and connect with the branch train at Little Falls. The only inconvenience about this day service would be the change of trains at Little Falls.

Brainerd people would gladly overlook this if the proposed schedule is carried through for they would then get a night train.

It is claimed that Nos. 7 and 8, which now go by the way of the cut-off, will run through Brainerd. No. 7 from the east arrives at Staples about 1 o'clock
a. m. and it is presumed that this would be about the hour that it would arrive here. No. 8 from the west arrives there about 3 a. m.

The connection between this city and the west would be made by running the Duluth train through to Staples every day. This train now turns here. The Morris branch train would then turn here.

THIS CERTAINLY IS DEPLORABLE

John Conrad's Home Burned
While he was Away to Meet
His Wife at Depot

Furniture and House Were Totally Destroyed—Both Were Partially Insured

John Conrad met grim misfortune this morning and as a result is loser something like $600 from fire.

Shortly before 4 o'clock this morning he came down to the N. P. depot to meet his wife who was returning home from Fargo where she had been visiting for some time. He built the fire in the stove before leaving the house and locked the door. When at the depot the department was called and it was discovered that the fire was at the home of Mr. Conrad. He and his wife hurried home, but it was too late to save anything and the house and its contents were consumed.

The most unfortunate thing about the fire was the fact that Mr. Conrad left $350 in bills in the house and this amount went up in smoke. Also his watch. He carried $850 insurance on the furniture but this will not cover the
about $300. The house is owned by John Lambert, of Emily and there was $500 insurance on it. The loss was about $700. The fire is supposed to have started from an over heated stove.

The department was called out earlier in the evening, about 9 o'clock, to the
A. Purdy livery stable. It was nothing but a chimney fire and no damage was done.

Florence Hall Lost Her Pocket Book Containing Ticket and Money at the N.
P. Depot Last Night.

A young girl by the name of Florence Hall, about thirteen years of age, lost her pocket book at the N. P. depot last night just as she was about to board
the train which leaves for Staples at midnight and after the train started found herself in a rather bad dilemma—no money and no ticket. She was taken to Staples and sent back to Brainerd
on Agent G. W. Mosier. Mr. Mosier at once took steps to help the young girl and in a few minutes collected enough money to pay her fare from here to Wazeta. Later it was discovered that Night Captain Henry Hurley found a pocket book and when it was reported this morning Mr. Mosier was sent for
and with the little girl went up to the police court and identified the property as her own. The money was turned over to her and she went on her way rejoicing.

CHARGE ON THE CROWD AND IN-FLICT WOUNDS ON OVER A HUNDRED PEOPLE.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 12.—A popular anti-government demonstration, the participants in which included large numbers of students of both sexes, began at midday in the Nevsky Prospect and lasted about two hours. Hundreds of police and mounted gendarmes, who were hidden in the courtyard of the public buildings, emerged suddenly and charged the crowd at full gallop, driving the demonstrators in headlong confusion and screaming with terror upon the sidewalks and into adjacent streets. This led to serious encounters, fifty persons being more or less severely injured. Large numbers were arrested.

Not since the riots of 1891, when Cossacks reaching across the Nevsky Prospect from building to building, charged down the boulevard from the Moscow station to the Neva, has the Russian capital lived through such a day of excitement as Sunday. The authorities Saturday night got wind of the big anti-government demonstration planned for Sunday by the Social Democratic labor party to demand an immediate end of the war and the convocation of a national assembly and leading the articles in every paper Sunday morning was an explicit notice warning the people at their peril to desist from congregating in the Nevsky Prospect Sunday morning near the Kazan cathedral. At the same time extensive preparations were made to quell any disturbance.

The newspaper warnings, however,
by giving notice to those not apprised of the prospect of a demonstration defied the very object for which they were designed, attracting vast crowds to this vicinity, and despite the pleadings of the police, who literally lined the sidewalks, the street was almost impassable. The crowds on the sidewalk were composed of practically the whole student body of the capital, including many young women and thousands of workmen. Shortly before noon the workmen seemed to swarm to the corner of the boulevard opposite the Kazan cathedral. The police, realizing the critical moment had arrived, tried in vain to keep back the
not a single mounted policeman in sight, on the stroke of one from the heart of the thickly wedged crowd a red flag, like a jet of flame, suddenly shot up. It was the signal. Other flags appeared in the crowd, waving frantically overhead, and they were greeted with a hoarse roar, "Down with autocracy."

The students surged into the street, singing the Marseillaise," while innocent spectators, seeking to extricate themselves crowded into doorways and hugged walls.

Disarmed police made a single attempt to force their way into the crowd to wrest the flags from the demonstrators, but the students and workmen, armed with sticks, stood close and beat back their assaults.

Then, like a flash, from behind the Kazan cathedral came a squadron of gendarmes. The doors of adjoining court yards were thrown back and battalions of police came out. A double squadron charged the flank of the demonstrators with drawn sabers.
Five other squadrons circled the mob, cutting through the fringe of spectators, who gladly scurried to cover.
The main wedge of the demonstrators stood fast only a moment or two.
There was a sharp rattle of cudgels and sabers, though the wounds showed the police struck principally with the flat of their sabers.
down their faces.

The police urged their horses
those who resisted. The intense excitement lasted about ten minutes, after which mounted squads of the
the policemen devoted themselves to

heads and several were severely
as known. So far there have been over 100 arrests.

The ferment continued all day and far into the night, but only one or two
demonstrations.

Nos. 5 and 6 Said to Be Scheduled

look this if the proposed schedule is carried through for they would then get a night train.

a. m. and it is presumed that this would
there about 3 a. m.

here.

MRS. C. MCINTOSH HAS FLOWN

Husband Went to Minneapolis to Investigate the Why and Wherefore of Her Sudden Disappearance.

C. McIntosh has returned from Minneapolis where he went to try and locate the woman who skipped out a short time ago with money belonging to the shop men, some $80. He says he went down to ascertain whether the woman got the money back after being released and he is satisfied that she did. He says that she has left Minneapolis and no one seems to know where she has gone, but he found out she spent $50 of the money for clothing before leaving.

80 Years Old.

Mrs. Sina W. Platt, of Unity, Wis., a lady of 80 years, was recently cured of rheumatism by Gloria Tonic after many well-known remedies were previously used. This happy result ought to be a great encouragement to many of our

HELD TO GRAND JURY

Men Arrested Here Charged with Little Falls Holdup Had Preliminary Hearing at Little Falls.

The two men arrested here and taken back to Little Falls charged with the holdup of Operator Fuller at the N. P. depot in that city, have had a hearing and were held to the grand jury to answer to the charge. The Little Falls Transcript states that the authorities have a clear case against the men and that they without doubt will be convicted. Great praise is given the local officials who effected the capture of the men.

While he was Away to Meet

Furniture and House Were Total-

morning and as a result is loser some-

Shortly before 4 o'clock this morning
locked the door. When at the depot the department was called and it was discovered that the fire was at the home of Mr. Conrad. He and his wife hurried
were consumed.

have started from an over heated stove.

A. Purdy livery stable. It was nothing
done.

taining Ticket and Money at the N.
P. Depot Last Night.

police court and identified the property as her own. The money was turned
rejoicing.

ZERO WEATHER

For the First Time this Year Jack Frost Took to Cutting up a Few Didoes.

Last night and this morning was the coldest spell Brainerd has had so far this year, and the mercury really danced around the zero mark for several hours.
It was four below zero and the weather throughout the day has been frosty.
At other places north it was much colder and at Duluth it is reported that it was very cold and yesterday there was a regular blizzard. At least ten inches of snow fell at the head of the lakes.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 12.—A popular
and charged the crowd at full gallop,
streets. This led to serious encounters,
arrested.

Prospect from building to building,
the big anti-government demonstra-
Democratic labor party to demand an

The newspaper warnings, however,
feated the very object for which they
posite the Kazan cathedral. The police,

singing the Marseillaise, while innocent spectators, seeking to extricate
and hugged walls.

Dismounted police made a single at-
close and beat back their assailants.

the demonstrators with drawn sabers.
cutting through the fringe of spectators, who gladly scurried to cover.
stood fast only a moment or two.
cipally with the flat of their sabers.
down their faces.

citement lasted about ten minutes,
keeping the crowd moving.

over 100 arrests.

demonstrations.

House Will Begin Second Week With Their Consideration.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The house will begin the second week of the session with consideration of private pension bills, Monday having been made pension day.

On Tuesday the resolution reported by the judiciary committee to impeach Charles Swayne, judge of the Northern district of Florida, comes before the house as a special order. It is probable that the appropriations committee may report a short urgent deficiency bill during the week, and it is stated that it is barely possible that the District of Columbia appropriation bill may be reported by the end of the week. A subcommittee is hard at work framing the bill.

Canonized by Pope Pius.

Rome, Dec. 12.—In the presence of 60,000 people assembled in St. Peter's, Pope Pius X. canonized Blessed Alessandre Sauli and Blessed Gerardo Mallea, descendants of whom, including Marquis Ambrosio, Sauli and Negrotto, assisted in the canoniza-tions.

The committee appointed to recount the vote for alderman in the Third ward met this afternoon and the following report is the result of their deliberations:

Brainerd, Minn., Dec. 12, 1904.
We, the undersigned committee, appointed by the court to make count of the ballots cast at the general election on November 8th, 1904, for Andrew Miller and Timothy Toohey, respectively, for aldermen of the Third ward in the city of Brainerd, respectfully report to the court that we met at the office of the city clerk of the city of Brainerd, on this 12th day of December, 1904, at 2 o'clock, p. m., present F. E. Low, city clerk, Andrew Miller and Timothy Toohey, contestants, and their respective counsel, A. T. Larson and A. D.
Polk.

After opening the box containing the ballots we carefully counted the ballots cast for the said candidates and hereby certify that at said election said Andrew Miller received one hundred ninety one votes for said office of alderman, and said Timothy Toohey received one hundred ninety one votes for said office of alderman.

The Information Contained in this Cizen's Statement is Invaluable to Brainerd People.

When a resident of Brainerd, whose statement appears below, who has no monetary or other interest in the article which he endorses, who is anxious to do his acquaintances and fellow residents a good turn, who publishes in this paper his experience with Doan's Kidney Pills—that citizen must have good and sufficient reason for doing so. The following should dispel any doubts which may have existed in the reader's mind on this subject:

J. Hagadorn, of 123 Ninth St. north, says: "For thirty years I had more or less trouble with my kidneys. Some at times laid me up, while during others my back ached so severely that I could not sleep at night nor work during the day. On many occasions I could not stand and talk to a man for two or three minutes without suffering with twinges across the small of my back which radiated toward the shoulders. As time passed by the complaint became more pronounced and difficulty with the kidney secretions set in. As might be expected I tried everything when the attacks occurred to check them, but if I had met with any marked degree of success I never would have resorted to Doan's Kidney Pills. When suffering severely I went to a drug store and got a box. I expected the results would be similar to those obtained by using other preparations. In twenty four hours I changed my mind. I noticed they were acting totally different to anything hitherto tried and encouraged I kept on with the treatment until I finished two boxes. Now I may have recurrences, but at the present moment, and it is some time since I stopped the treatment, I have not a symptom of my old complaint. To anyone interested I will be only too pleased to give minutest details and substantiate the above statement in a personal interview."

Sold for 50 cents a box by H. P. Dunn

If you value your money you cannot afford to miss this sale
It is a repetition of the same old story. The people came, the crowd was great. The Customers found what they were looking for and bought freely, and we cannot but feel some pride at the continued display of confidence shown by the people of Brainerd and vicinity in our announcements, and we heartily say: Thank you. Remember this sale is now to continue. There will be bargains, and great bargains, until January 15th, 1905.
